

There is a definite need for the use of safety vests when transporting special education students. Some students fall sideways in their seat when just restrained with a seat belt, some students unbuckle themselves from a seat belt, some students undress themselves when just secured with a seat belt, and some students need to be restrained so they don't grab or hit other students.